Schools & Colleges Guide 2021 – 2022

ABOUT HOME

© Machteld Schoep

Since HOME opened in 2015, we have shown thrilling theatre and dance shows, great independent films from across the world, and exhibited provocative contemporary art in our galleries.

We continue to share new art, new experiences and new stories from within our wonderful building and remotely via online exhibitions and workshops, live streaming of theatre productions and through our partnerships with cinema streaming platforms.

HOME can support your students to discover these experiences online and through supporting group visits.

HOW CAN WE SUPPORT YOUR VISIT? TALKS AND TOURS

We are pleased to be able to welcome you back into the building. If you're planning to bring a group to see a film, theatre production or an exhibition, our Engagement Team can usually offer a building or gallery tour tailored to your group's needs. However due to ongoing concerns over Covid-19 transmission we can only offer this for smaller groups for the time being.

To find out about our online content and upcoming theatre productions, exhibitions or film screenings visit homemcr.org

To discuss further details on how we can assist schools and colleges, please don't hesitate to email schools@homemcr.org

ONLINE SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES PROGRAMME

ONSITE BEHAVIOUR POLICY

All pupils attending events should be accompanied by their teachers unless written consent has been provided by HOME stating other arrangements. Teachers are responsible for their pupils and all attendees are expected to behave in a responsible manner and to not cause disruptions to other pupils.

We recommend teachers supervise where pupils sit for cinema screenings to prevent disruptive friendship groups sitting together. Individuals who cause disruption will be asked to behave by HOME staff and their teachers will be informed. If disruptions continue, HOME reserves the right to ask the entire class to leave.

ONSITE LUNCHTIME & BREAK ARRANGEMENTS

Unfortunately, HOME cannot offer any spaces or take responsibility for students during lunchtime. There are many places to purchase food nearby and groups can enjoy our café menu. However, we request that groups do not eat their own food in our café bar. For younger groups please contact the schools@homemcr.org to discuss any arrangements. Please be aware that HOME does not accept responsibility for the safety of any young person visiting the venue once they have exited the building and are off-site during a lunch break.

HOME staff will not escort or supervise any young people to the toilets, but will give directions to the nearest toilet. There is a “Radar” lock fitted to the accessible toilets. This enables disabled customers to access the toilet without having to ask for a key. If you have any enquiries about this facility, can you please refer to the Radar website (<https://www.disabilityrightsuk.org/shop/radar-key>), where keys can be ordered. The key is also available from Box Office, for anyone who doesn't have one. To devise a procedure for younger children or those with special needs please discuss with schools@homemcr.org.
